KEYNOTE SPEAKER

RHONDA PRINGLE

Rhonda Pringle is the Market President and Publisher for the Baltimore Business Journal. In this role she oversees the coordinated efforts of editorial, advertising, events and audience development to promote strategic growth in all areas and adherence to the mission of The Business Journals.

Rhonda has over 28 years of media and marketing experience, having started her career as a reporter with the Florida Times-Union and then in various sales and marketing management roles for some of the largest media companies in the U.S. where she worked with small businesses and Fortune 100 companies.

Rhonda was recognized as a “World Class Leader” by the National Ad Council and “A Leader to Watch” by the National Association of Black Journalists. Since joining American City Business Journals in 2015, she has been recognized with four Eagle Awards for outstanding performance since 2015.

Rhonda is very active in the community and serves on the board of Ronald McDonald House Charities of Maryland, Live Baltimore’s Executive Board, The Center Club Board of Governors, The GBC Women’s Advisory board, The Girl Scouts of Central Maryland Nominating Committee and a number of other committees.

A native of Jacksonville, Florida, Rhonda is a proud graduate of the University of Florida, where she holds a Bachelor’s of Science degree in Journalism and a Bachelor’s of Arts in Marketing.
